The Union as it Was.

Some people don't want the Union as was-a Union with Buchanan President, Cobb, Floyd & Co. Secretaries, and Washington city a nest of treason. The Republicans say the Democratic party are responsible for the Union under James Buchanan & Co., and, therefore, judging them by such antecedents, they are not fit to be intrusted with office and power in the Union. This is pretty well as a mere partisan retort. It would not be easy to find anything meaner than Buchanan and his Administration. "Well," said a looker-on at the Democratic Convention in Cincinnati, in 1856, to an editor who had been for anybody rather than Buchanan, from Douglas down to Old Nick, "what do you think of the nomination?" "The nominec will be elected." was the reply, "but he will be the last President the Democratic party will elect, perhaps, in our day. Buchanan will be sure to do something mean enough to ruin any party that supports him." About two-thirds of the party came very soon to the same conclusion; and the party itself, in the next race, had no more bitter opponents than James Buchanan and his nest of traitors. He once said, so it was charged, that if he had a drop of Democratic blood in his veins he would let it out." We have no idea he would have kept his word; for he never was guilty of such an act in his lite that we know of. The drop was not there. No man ever sat in the Presidential Chair whose conduct was more antagonistic to the school of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson.

We protest against calling his Adminis tration Democratic. Give the name to any other since this was a Government. The principle of Democracy. The active, intelligent politician that supported Buchanas throughout, and knew what he was doing and what he did it for, we should not trust with office.

We don't hold, however, that the meanness of Buchanan is a license for all the meanness that men may meditate hereafter. His administration of the Union was not the Union as it was. Those who are for the Union as it was are not for such an administration of its affairs as we had under James Buchanan. It was the forerunner and the cause of great calamities. That does not, however, excuse these radicals. They are no better than Buchanan & Co. Both, indeed, are so bad that each is worse than the other.

The enthusiast who proclaimed that the telegraph annihilated time and space did not give half the wonders of that invention. It is about as prolific (of lies) as one of those insects which are said to deposit 9,728,236 eggs, on a surface the size of a five-cent piece. Early in the war the New York Tribune published two evening editions-it was said to correct in the second the falsehoods in the first. We never saw many of the corrections, but only a new generation of the same kind. From the beginning of the war the reckless course was productive of evil until its want of reliability has partially at least destroyed the injury it might effect. S. S. Prentiss once defended a client charged with slander, on the ground that the defendant was such a notorious liar that what he said was never believed, and therefore obtained an acquittal.

A similar plea will be necessary to save some of the telegraphic correspondents of the Eastern papers. Our neighbor of the Journal noted the fact that when a falsehood of particular magnitude was about to be told it was always headed, "It is rumored iu official circles." Whether the telegrapher or the official circles are the fonntain from which bursts the perennial tide of humbugging, we will not pretend to say The telegraphers have certainly sins enough of their own to answer for.

Latterly they have devoted them selves to propagating the absurdity that Mr. Lincoln's nigger proclamatiou is unanimously approved. If we were to believe them the unanimous approval of cannot long survive. There were two boilbread aud meat, as a diet for man, wouldn't be a circumstance to the unanimity in favor of that ridiculous and ill-timed document. The absurdity of such an attempt to make public opiniou, is shown by the fact that not even all of the Republican press approve it, and all the Democratic press condemn it. Even its defenders admit that it is ill-timed. No doubt of it, and it would be ill-timed at any time. As to its effect in the army, we can see it in the fact that an earnest appeal from General McClellan was necessary to soothe the discussion, if

All such surmises are bosh. The proclamation will exasperate the rebels, and that information on the subject, it is far less to the correspondent than to any citizen of this State. A correspondent squats in the pestilential air of the Capital, inhales the foul breath of some fanatical Republican, who speaks the wish of his heart, and forthwith he spews it out as a notable fact.

If it were true-if, in reality, the proclamation was leading to insurrections wherein innocent women and children were to be given over to the savagery and lust of a barbarous race, it is the loudest, strongest condemnation of the proclamation that has ever been made. It makes it damnable-without excuse or mitigation -the most horrible scheme that was ever conceived in a civilized or savage country. ously But it is not true. Disgraceful Scene in Faneuil Hall. BOW AMONG THE ABOLITIONISTS-ARREST AND BRUTAL TREATMENT OF GEORGI FRANCIS TRAIN--FREE SPEECH A FARCE.

[From the Boston Post, October 6.] We give elsewhere in our paper a brief account of the Charles Summer Abolition Negro meeting held in Fancul Hall yes terday noon. It was one of the most extraordinary gatherings that ever convened in that famous old temple, and can hardly add to the credit of the city or the good sense of the people. It was an assembles of fanatics, met to worship Charles Snmner and his dangerous and detestable sentiments-and as such was calculated to pro duce far more ill than good, as was the case

During his speech Mr. Sumper specially challenged criticism-but no sooner was this accepted on the part of some of his hearers, than the meeting utterly refused to hear a response. Free speech, such as had been invited, was not permitted. The friends of Mr. George Francis Train, who with him had remained quietly for two mortal hours listening to Mr. Sumner, thought it only fair that he should be heard; and this, too, after the Sumper ovation had actually come to an end. But such a seemingly fair and just proceeding was not to be allowed. Mr. Train, after much peril and difficulty, reached the platform, but was seized in the roughest manner by the police and others, He succeeded several times in clearing himself from these inenmbrances, but was at last overpowered and taken from the hall by the passage in therear of the platform. From thence, without any covering to his head, he was taken to Police Station 2, followed by a large crowd.

In a Train Extra, issued last evening, Mr. Train makes the following

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, NEAR SHAHFSBURG, Md., September 30, 1862. General Order No. 160:

The Commanding General extends his congratulations to the army under his command, for the victories achieved by their bravery at the passes of the South Mountain, and upon the Antietam creek. The billiant conduct of Reno's and Hooker's corps, under Burnside, at Turner's Gap, and of Franklin's corps at Crampton pass, in which, in the face of an enemy strong in position and resisting with obstinacy, they carried the mountain and prepared the way for the advance of the army, won for them the admiration of their brethren in arms. In the memorable battle of Antietam we defeated a numerous and powerful army of the enemy in an action desperately fought and remarkable for its duration and for the destruction of life which attended it. The obstinate bravery of the troops of Hooker, Mansfield and Sumner, the dashing gallantry of those of Franklin, on the right, the steady valor of those of Burnside, on the left, and the vigorous support of Porter and Pleasanton, present a brilliant spectacle to our countrymen which will swell their hearts with pride and exultation.

Fourteen guns, thirty-uine colors, 15,500 stand of arms, and nearly six thousand prisoners, taken from the enemy, are evidences of the completeness of our triumph. A grateful country will thank the noble army for the achievements which have resened the loyal States of the East from the ravages of the invader, and have driven him from their borders. While rejoicing ing, have crowned our exertions, let us cherish the memory of our brave comrades who have laid down their lives upon the batttefield, martyrs in their country's cause. Their names will be enshrined in the hearts of the people. By command of Major General McCLELLAN.

The object of the reconnoissance was fully accomplished, and much valuable information was gained in regard to the strength and position of the rebel force in this quarter.

Latest from Perryville.

By the arrival of the party bringing to the city the remains of Generals Jackson, Terrill, and Acting-General Webster, we learn that the battle of Wednesday was one of the fiercest on record. The forces under McCook and Rousseau were heavily outnumbered, but bravely and gallantly withstood the shock of twice their numbers, till about five o'clock in the evening, when Wood's division came upon the field in a run. With the power of an avalanche, and a great shout, this division made a charge, when the rebel columns broke and retreated. Our forces pursued them, fighting until night intervened. When Thursday morning came, as we yesterday anticipated, the rebel army had disappeared, having fallen back about seven or eight miles from the battle-field. North Benson, was completed to-night The trains can now run to Benson bridge, half mlle west of Benson station. I com pleted one telegraph wire to Frankfort today. The Frankfort office is now open. There are afew rebels roaming round through the hills, but I have not seen any since last night. There were six of them trying to capture me and my men while putting up the telegraph wires, but finding I had a guard with me they skedaddied. I have a detachment of the 25th Michigan regiment with me, Captain Cross ln command. The secesh citizens keep the rebels pretty well informed as to the movements around here. There was an encampment consisting of about forty rebels, at Buzzard Roost, flast night, but they have come to this side of the creek today, and are now somewhere south of here.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 7, 3 P. M. Gov. Curtin has just received the following dispatch from Coionel McClure, at Mercersburg was occupied by Stewart's rebei cavalry to-day, and they are now ad-vancing on Chambersburg. They took horses and all other property they wanted at Mercersburg, offering rebel script for it. They did no injury to individual persons that I have heard of. The rebel force is estimated at 3,000. They are certainly advancing on Chambersburg. They have cut the Bedford wire. They are reported as near St. Thomas, about seven miles from

Horse and Buggy Missing.

ON FRIDIY, THE 26TH INST., I HIRED A MARE and buggy to a gentleman to visit his sons in the army, just arrived in the suburbs of the city.

The mare is a small bay and nicked, no white about her. The buggy has a top, without side curtains. It is silver mounted, the red across the top of the dash has been broken near middle and mended hy having a cylinder into which the broken ends are secured. A liferal reward will be given for them, or such information as with enable me to get them. The man that lired them is from Jackson county, Indiana, and may have been arrested, as I do not think he would run away with them.
